

Family Agreement

Dear Parents:

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the Raising A Reader (RAR) book bag lending program. Please review the following information about the responsibilities of being a Raising A Reader family. We hope you will participate in this great opportunity and fall in love with sharing books with your child every day.

- There is no cost to participate in Raising A Reader and families are not charged for lost or damaged books. However donations will be accepted. We want the books to last 5 to 7 years.
- The books and red canvas book bags belong to the program. It is my family responsibility to return the books and bags weekly so that they can be circulated to other children and families.

Please check the following:

- I will watch the Read Aloud parent video and share it with other adults or teens that provide care for my child.
- I will take good care of the books and bags. They teach my children responsibility.
- I will complete the program survey and turn it in to RAR Staff.
- I will return the books and bags if I am moving or taking my child out of the Boys and Girls Club.
- By participating in Raising A Reader, I will make every effort to share the books with my child and establish a regular routine for reading.

I agree to the terms listed above and would like my family to take part in Raising A Reader.

I hereby grant (for myself and my heirs, successors and assignees) Raising A Reader[®] and its employees, agents and project funders the right to photograph/videotape me and/or my child. In doing so I assign irrevocable, worldwide right and authorization to use my and/or my child's picture/video, voice, and other reproductions of physical for any purpose, including but not limited to publicity, education, fundraising, or otherwise promoting the mission and activities of Raising A Reader.

I understand that I will receive no name recognition or monetary compensation for the use of visual/auditory images. I also waive any right to inspect or approve the finished edited segment or to the eventual use that it may be applied. I also agree that the use of my photograph/video, voice, likeness, name or quote may be modified (intentionally or otherwise) in any manner, throughout the world, without additional approval from or compensation to me.

I acknowledge that Raising A Reader is the owner of the works and that Raising A Reader agrees not to sell or release the works to commercial entities. I waive and release from any and all claims and/or demands I may have arising out of or in connection with the use of my photograph/video, identity, likeness, name or quote, including (but not limited to) claims based on rights of publicity or privacy, defamation or intellectual property rights infringement.

I acknowledge that this release form contains all the terms of our agreement, that I have read the foregoing and fully understand and accept the contents, and that this release form is legally binding. Unless my legal parent or guardian has signed this release form below, I certify that I am at least 18 years old.
